Crime.

Detective Agency arrested this aftermoon, at McDonough, N. Y., Edward | secretary. Mr. Lincoln's friends N. Welch, the principal in the Kewance bank robbery, August 14. The morning before the robbery, Mr. A. poken with one Welch, whom he new as a salesman for a fish house. This was in Neponsett, and that afa Kewanee, sitting down where he Welch at this time had on different Cothing than he was wearing in the .sorning and there was another man. The description of the tall man who was engaged in the robbery tallied exactly with Welch's appearance. As it was found that a traveling sales man who had been formerly employed by McNab & Cook, fish merity, and at the time of the robbery was traveling for Porter & Worthington, iish dealers, Boston, his route over the Chicago, Burlington & Onincy was looked after. The conductor and a number of his acquaintances saw him on the train going to Kewance on the Saturday before the robbery. He seemed desirous of evoiding recognition.

He left the train at Neponsett, ational amendment adopted in Iowa] times to hire a horse and buggy. It s follows: Democrats 31, and opposition a year ago to a respectable sation 2.
